

SAVOR THE DISH

Asian tapas and a Sweet Life cocktail at Sugar.

EAT, RAVE, REPEAT

REVELRY, IMBIBING, AND INDULGING IS THE NATURAL PROGRESSION DURING MARCH'S MANY MUSIC EVENTS. DO IT ALL AT THESE BARS AND CLUBS WHERE THE PARTYING, DRINKING, AND EATING NEVER STOP. BY CARLA TORRES

ALL JAZZED UP: THE CORNER

What happens at the Corner—where the city's cool kids unite for jazz, Prohibition-style cocktails, 4 AM Crazy Madames, and Cuban-style ice cream sandwiches—stays at the Corner. 103 N. Miami Ave., Miami, 305-967-7887; thecornermiami.com

COMFORT FOOD AT THE CLUB: E11EVEN

You could actually spend all 24 hours at the city's only 24/7 show club and never go hungry, thanks to a hefty menu that includes pizza, sliders, and chicken and waffles. Craving smoked Gouda mac and cheese or serrano ham croquettes? Simply take the elevator up to the roof. 29 NE 11th St., Miami, 305-829-2911; 11miami.com

LIFESAVER: RADIO BAR

Need to sober up? Radio's caprese pesto grilled cheese will bring you back to life for whatever's next on the musical agenda. Before you go, wet your whistle and get your antioxidants with the blueberry mule. 814 First St., Miami Beach, 305-397-8382; radiosouthbeach.com ■

A PARTY: BAY CLUB
During the partying, (but want pizza) your buzz. Kill two sit to Lucali's secret y Club, where bar- es and anything else n Lucali's menu (kale e?) can be ordered cocktail to wash it Thursday-night kara- 30 Bay Road, Miami 305-4441; lucali.com

RADIO BAR
Sober up? Radio's caprese cheese will bring you or whatever's next on enda. Before you go, le and get your anti- the blueberry mule. 814 First St., Miami Beach, 305-397-8382; radiosouthbeach.com ■